

COVID-19 MEDICAL NETWORK LTD

Sunday Newsletter #2

Thanks to everyone who contacted us with such positive feedback regarding the inaugural CMN Newsletter. This one will be short, with less words and a few more links.

The main CMN news is that we have written a letter to the TGA to raise concerns about the ongoing ban of Hydroxychloroquine despite the growing evidence for its safety and efficacy for treatment of early Covid illness.

This issue will focus on some open letters from other groups, including a group of brave NSW police, a group of Australian lawyers among others.

Also attached are some links with the latest developments relating to various issues of the Covid phenomenon including, Lockdown Harms Early Treatments, Mandatory Face Masks. Enjoy!

NSW Police Speak Out

A courageous group of 70 NSW police wrote an open letter to the Michael Fuller, the Police Commissioner of New South Wales, raising concerns about the responses to the Covid phenomenon. Their 'whistleblowing' efforts have caused considerable reaction and instigated an inquiry by NSW police authorities. The letter is available at this website called 'Cops for Covid Truth'. A follow up letter by a Public Order and Response Team officer has also just been published on the site. Read more...

Australian Lawyers Network

A network of concerned Australian Lawyers have written an extensive and detailed open letter to Heads of Government, raising concerns about the legality of many of the responses to the Covid phenomenon by

Australian governments. Their website which contains extensive exhibits and resources, including the open letter, can be viewed here...

INFORMATION and LINKS

1. Early Outpatient Covid Treatments

CMN Letter to TGA on the Banning of HCQ

This week the CMN wrote to Professor John Skerritt of the TGA, raising concerns about the ongoing ban on Hydroxychloroquine and the neglect of early treatments for Covid illness, despite the extensive and growing international evidence regarding its safety and efficacy. The letter can be accessed at our website from tomorrow.

Prof Peter McCullough Interview on 'The Outsiders'

Last week the CMN organised for Prof Peter McCullough to be interviewed on the Sky News program 'The Outsiders' with Rowan Dean and Team. Despite Peter's orange running jacket (long story), the live interview from his home in Dallas Texas, was excellent. Watch here...

2. Lock Down Harms and Costs

Evidence Not Fear

This excellent website examines the evidence behind the Covid phenomenon and the responses to it. It asks:

What is the scientific and medical basis for the measures being put in place for COVID-19? Should we wear face-masks? Is social distancing helpful? Did lockdown prevent deaths?

Australia is in the deepest economic downturn since the Great Depression with decades of economic growth brought to a halt as the result of the coronavirus pandemic. Watch here...

3. Mandatory Face Masks

Masks: The Science & Myths

This excellent 23 minute video by Dr Lee Merritt, MD explains the science behind face masks and pandemics, detailing the myths and falsehoods about their use. Delivered on October 16th 2020 at the 'America's Frontline Doctors' Summit, it is all you need to know about the topic of 'Face Masks and Covid'.

Masking lack of evidence with politics

Drs Tom Jefferson, Carl Heneghan from Oxford's Centre For Evidence Based Medicine Centre provide an excellent background of the available medical literature on the use of masks for viral respiratory illness pandemics

Dehumanising Face Masks

Patrick Fagan wrote an excellent cultural and psychological critique of mandatory face masks, explaining how the problems go far beyond whether they are effective or not. He details many of the subtle psychological and social harms, arguing that face masks are a form of dehumanisation. A perspective worth considering as the habit of face-masks seems to have caught on in Melbourne.
