Newsletter #3

Apologies for the late arrival of this week's CMN newsletter. It has been a big week for the Covid-Counter-Narrative both locally and internationally.

The CMN letter to the TGA, mentioned in last weeks newsletter, has now been published on our website and is available for viewing. It is also linked below.

In Melbourne this week , local businessman Albert Dadon AM hosted an important online conference for the International Institute for Strategic Leadership Dialogue. The conference involved senior politicians, diplomats and media personal from Australia , UK and Israel. Tony Abbott and Ehud Olmert were two ex-prime ministers who were among the presenters. Two sessions were devoted to examining the Covid phenomenon and in particular the impact to Victoria.

The first session was: "Covid-19 Lockdowns: Policy Blunder or New Necessary Evil?" The second session was: "The Post Covid Economy: What will the New Normal Look Like?"

Details of the panel members and links to the videos are provided below.

One of the panel members on both sessions was Melbourne -based economist Sanjeev Sabhlok. Sanjeev worked for the Victorian Treasury until he resigned in September 2020 in protest at the decisions and policies being made in response to Covid. The conference coincided with the launch of his book: "The Great Hysteria and the Broken State", which details his experiences and the political and policy failings of the Victorian government. His book can be accessed here.

The US Senate Committee on Homeland Security held Part II of its hearing into: "<https://www.hsgac.senate.gov/e...>">Early Outpatient Treatments of Covid-19"
